en in consultation.

Edward B. McLean son of Mrs. Mc-Loan was at Newport attending the Horse Show when he received the message telling of his mother's fliness. He at once telephoned asking for a train his wife and Mme. Bakhmeteff, wife of the Russian Ambassador to Washington, raced to his mother's side.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward B. MoLean were pending the summer at Newport and garden party in their honor was to have been given there this afternoon by Mme. Bakhmeteff and the Ambassader, who had invited 300 guests. As she hurried from Newport, Mme, Bakhmetelf left orders for the cancelling of the party and the recall of the invita-

Then He Escaped. OSAGE CITY, Kan., Sept. 5.-A. cific passenger train here early to-day and robbed the conductor, the ticket suditor and six men in the smoker After obtaining only 200 the robber jumped from the train when it stopped at a water tank and escaped into a cornfield. The conductor said the ban-dit was a "rank amateur."

Opposed Compulsory Arbitration. NEWPORT, England, Sept. 5 .- Compulsory arbitration of trade disputes is strongly opposed by British trade unionists, who today at the Trades Union Congress cast an overwhelming vote against the adoption of the prin-ciple. Nearly 2,000,000 members of trades unions are represented by the 500 delegates attending the congress, which began its sessions Sept. 2.

BOSTON, Sept. 5.—The world has been deprived of a possible successor to Tetrazzini since Arthur Erisman of Boston and Relia Reid of Washington ran away from the Hotel Pemberton at Hull and got married on Aug. 28.

A phonograph disk was responsible for it all, according to the happy bridegroom. The affair might be styled a phonograph romance, for Miss Reid's father, Irby W. Reid, by making a record of his daughter's voice and sending it to his friend, Erisman, got the young people interested in each other.

BAR HARBOR, Me. Sept. 5.—The condition of Mrs. John R. McLean of Washington, who was stricken with pneumonia on Sunday, was considered by Washington. Philadelphia and Bar Harbor physicians, seven of whom have been in consultation.
